

Fields Paint Contracting

Privacy Policy

Effective date: September 20, 2026 | Website: fieldspaintcontracting.com

Fields Paint Contracting respects the privacy of visitors to fieldspaintcontracting.com. This Privacy Policy explains what information may be collected through the website, how it may be used, when it may be shared, and the choices available to visitors.

This policy applies to information collected through the Fields Paint Contracting website. It does not govern the privacy practices of unrelated third-party websites that may be linked from the site.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect information that you choose to provide when you contact Fields Paint Contracting or submit a website form. Depending on the form or request, this may include:

- your name;
- email address;
- telephone number;
- the type of painting, restoration, or related project you are interested in;
- the message or project details you submit; and
- other information you voluntarily provide while requesting an estimate or communicating with us.

The website and its hosting, security, and supporting services may also collect limited technical information automatically. This can include an IP address, browser or device information, referring pages, pages visited, approximate location derived from technical data, and information used for security, troubleshooting, site performance, or basic traffic measurement.

2. How We Use Information

Information collected through the site may be used to:

- respond to questions, estimate requests, or other messages;
- communicate about a requested painting, restoration, carpentry, or related project;
- operate, maintain, secure, and improve the website;
- prevent spam, abuse, fraud, or other misuse;
- understand general website use and performance; and
- comply with applicable legal obligations or protect legitimate business rights.

Fields Paint Contracting does not use website contact information for unrelated mass marketing without an appropriate basis or separate consent.

3. Contact Forms and Communications

When you submit a contact form, the information you enter is transmitted so Fields Paint Contracting can respond to your request. Website forms currently request information such as your name, email address, phone number, project interest, and message.

Email, telephone, and website communications may be retained as reasonably necessary to respond to you, prepare or discuss an estimate, document customer service, maintain business records, resolve disputes, or meet legal and accounting obligations.

4. Cookies and Similar Technologies

The website may use cookies or similar browser technologies for normal site operation, security, spam prevention, embedded content, preferences, and basic website measurement. Some third-party services used on the site may also place or read cookies according to their own policies.

You can control or delete cookies through your browser settings. Blocking some cookies may affect the way certain website features function.

5. Third-Party Services and Embedded Content

The site uses or may display services provided by third parties. Based on the current website, these include Google reCAPTCHA for spam and abuse prevention, Google Maps for location information, and third-party review or trust widgets. WordPress, web-hosting, security, content-delivery, and similar service providers may also process limited technical information as necessary to provide their services.

Third-party services operate under their own terms and privacy policies. Fields Paint Contracting does not control the independent privacy practices of those providers.

6. How We Share Information

Fields Paint Contracting does not sell personal information collected through the website. Information may be disclosed only when reasonably necessary to operate the website or business, including:

- to service providers that support website hosting, forms, security, spam prevention, maps, or related website functions;
- when required by law, legal process, or a valid governmental request;
- when reasonably necessary to protect the rights, property, safety, or security of Fields Paint Contracting, its customers, or others; or
- as part of a legitimate business transfer, if the business or relevant assets are transferred, subject to applicable law.

7. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, for ordinary business recordkeeping, to resolve disputes, to maintain security, or to satisfy legal, tax, accounting, or contractual obligations. Retention periods may vary depending on the type of information and the reason it was collected.

8. Data Security

Fields Paint Contracting uses reasonable administrative and technical safeguards appropriate to a small-business website and relies on reputable website, hosting, security, and service providers. However, no website, email system, transmission method, or electronic storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

9. Children's Privacy

This website is intended for a general audience seeking painting, restoration, and related contracting services. Fields Paint Contracting does not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If we learn that a child under 13 has submitted personal information, we will take reasonable steps to delete it.

10. Your Choices and Requests

You may contact Fields Paint Contracting to ask about personal information you previously submitted through the website, or to request correction or deletion when reasonably possible and subject to applicable recordkeeping or legal requirements. We may need enough information to identify the communication or request before acting on it.

11. External Links

The website may contain links to third-party websites or social media services. Visiting an external website is subject to that provider's own privacy practices, and Fields Paint Contracting is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of unrelated third-party sites.

12. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in website features, service providers, business practices, or legal requirements. The effective date at the top of the policy will be updated when material revisions are made. The current version posted on the website controls.
